FROM OUR HEAD OF LOWER SCHOOL

This week has been filled with memory-making and learning, along with holiday activities. We hope that each of you enjoys your break and that your holidays are filled with love, laughter, and all those that are dear to you. We will see you on January 3rd!

- Mellie Joiner, M.Ed.

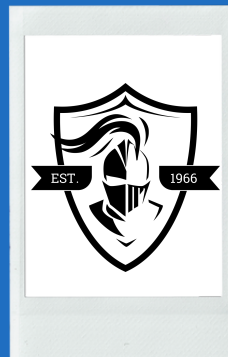

Key School Clubs

Do you want your Knight(s) to be more involved? Join a Key School Club today! We have several new clubs this year, as well as some returning favorites. All Club registration will be done online this year. Click the button below or scan the QR code on the flyer that was sent home today.

COUNSELOR'S CORNER

The following students are the most recent recipients of our Upper School Wall of Honor Award:

Our middle school winner this week prefers to be recognized privately, so congratulations to our middle school Knight being added to the Wall of Honor!

Connor M. - Connor has been working extremely hard and asking questions in math when he needs clarification involving processes, steps, and examples. Connor was also nominated for showing great improvement in his self-confidence! Great job to these outstanding Key School Knights!
